

2010 ACB Champ Park Concession Duty Schedule

IMPORTANT INFORMATION - PLEASE READ

Any team that fails to show up or provide an adequate number of people to work the concession stands will forfeit the next scheduled game. This coverage includes the ACB Playoffs and the A-Town Tournament which are outside of the scheduled season. In addition to the suspended team game, the manager for that team may also be suspended from the next game played beyond the team's suspended game. Failure to show or provide the adequate number of people for coverage in the concessions may also affect future considerations for managers. If your team has a scheduling problem it is the team manager's responsibility to make any arrangements necessary for coverage.

THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS!!

● The 2010 Austintown All-Star Tourney runs from 7/17/10 through 7/30/10. All teams will be required to work an additional 2 hour period during the tournament. The Concession schedule will be provided at a later date once the teams and brackets are determined. Managers, please don't forget to remind your team volunteers before the season ends, that they will be needed to help out during their scheduled time.

General Concession Stand Operation Rules:

- All weekday games start at 6:00 pm.
- * There will be equipment start up and shut down instructions posted inside the concession stand.
- * There will also be suggested Hot Food Item quantity instructions to follow/posted inside the concession stand, this minimizes product loss at night's end.
- * FIVE people are needed to run the concession stand effectively.
- * TWO people need to be ready to start 1 hour before the official game starting times on weekdays and the 1st game on the weekends.
- * The remaining work crew needs to be ready to start 1/2 hour before the official game starting times on weekdays and the 1st game on the weekends.
- * All Five crew people will need to be ready to start 10 minutes before the start of weekend games that are NOT the 1st games scheduled.
- * Everyone can leave once the concession stand is cleaned completely, the coolers are restocked and the register drawers have been collected.
